- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

DEFENDANT: Timothy John Murphy
CASE NUMBER: 2:07-cr-00354-001

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

1. The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
2. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, dangerous weapon or any other destructive device.
3. The defendant shall participate in a mental health treatment program and/or sex offender treatment program, approved by the probation officer. The defendant shall remain in any such program until he is released from it by the probation office and shall abide by all program rules, requirements and conditions of any such program, including submission to polygraph testing, to determine his compliance with same.
4. With the exception of brief, unanticipated, and incidental contacts, the defendant shall not associate with children under the age of 18, except for family members or children in the presence of an adult who has been approved by the probation officer.
5. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. 3583(d) & 4042(c)(4), the defendant shall report his residence address, and any subsequent change of his address, while he is on supervision. Furthermore, the defendant shall register as a convicted sex offender in any state where he resides, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student.
6. The defendant shall not possess any materials, including pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, videos, or video games depicting and/or describing child pornography as defined by 18 U.S.C. 2256(8).
7. The defendant is permitted to possess and/or use a computer and is allowed access to the Internet. However, the defendant is not permitted to use a computer, or other electronic communication or data storage devices, including a cell phone, to access pornography of any type or to communicate with any individual or group for the purpose of promoting sexual relations with children. The defendant shall consent to the installation of any hardware/software to monitor any computer, or other electronic communication or data storage devices used by the defendant to confirm the defendant's compliance with this condition. The defendant shall pay the monitoring costs as directed by the probation officer. Furthermore, the defendant shall consent to the probation officer conducting periodic unannounced examinations of any computers, cell phones, or other electronic communication or data storage devices that the defendant has access to, to confirm defendant's compliance with this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall consent to the seizure and removal of hardware and data storage media for further analysis by the probation officer, based upon reasonable suspicion of a violation of the conditions imposed in this case, or based upon reasonable suspicion of unlawful conduct by the defendant. The defendant's failure to submit to the monitoring and/or search of computers and other electronic communication or data storage devices used by the defendant may be grounds for revocation of supervision.
8. If the defendant's employment requires the use of a computer, the defendant may use a computer in connection with employment approved by the probation officer, provided the defendant notifies his employer of the nature of his conviction. The probation officer shall confirm the defendant's compliance with this notification requirement.
9. The defendant shall provide the probation office with accurate information about his entire computer system (hardware/software) and other digital media or devices, all passwords used by the defendant and his Internet Service Provider(s), and will abide by all rules of the Computer Restriction and Monitoring Program.
10. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicles papers, effects, computers and other digital media or devices, to a warrantless search conducted and controlled by the probation officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.
11. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA, as directed by the probation officer.
